Sunday 18 November 2018

Thirty-Third Sunday in

Ordinary Time: Year B

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel reading today is pointing us towards the end times. Jesus is speaking about how our Heavenly Father will gather his chosen ones from the four corners of the earth. It is a reminder to us that the way we choose to live our lives is important. We must choose to be evangelizers, to reach out to the poor, to spread the Good News and to have an open heart that helps us to love one another. One of the ways in which we can do all of these things and more is to think about collaborative ministry, that is the way we as Christians work together. On Thursday evening I was delighted to attend a meeting of the members of the Parish Councils from St Peter's with Our Lady's and St Joseph's. The aim is to bring into existence a joint pastoral council for Catholic Leamington and it was very encouraging to listen to the contributions from the clergy and lay faithful. I am a firm believer that alone we can do very little, together we can achieve significantly more. I would ask that we pray for those from our three Churches who are working to bring this idea to fruition and that the Holy Spirit will continue to guide us as we approach the Feast of Christ the King and then the lovely season of Advent.

Every blessing, Fr Andy

Tales of the Unexpected: Let us be honest. Everyone reads my column first - even you know who! Sometimes he reads it a number of times and I hear him chuckling about it or reading it to people on the telephone. I am pleased he finds it so amusing because as we all know, very often it is his life and antics that are the cause of my mirth. However at the end of the day he is a good sport. We spark off each other and thankfully he knows who is in charge. Best woofs, Bertie ;-) xx
