St Peter's & Our Lady's

A Gospel Reflection from Our Faith on Sunday:

Recently I saw a fig tree in the South of England which, to my surprise, had figs on its branches.

Most of the fig trees here never produce any fruit, and any amount of waiting will not change that. Sometimes we may feel like the barren fig trees and that we will always be the same and that no amount of praying or Mass or Confessions will help us change.

But God never sets us a task that is impossible to achieve. We are made for Heaven, for life with him and he will do whatever is necessary to get us there. So why do we often feel we face an impossible task? We think we can do it with our own willpower and determination, despite the fact that we know from experience that this doesn't work.

In John's Gospel, Jesus says, "Without me you can do nothing." He doesn't say "you can't do much," He says "nothing". So the key is doing things with Him. When it comes to difficulties and temptations we find almost impossible to deal with, we must hand them over to Him.

If we could have managed to succeed under our own steam, then His dying in agony on the Cross would have been futile. But his suffering and death enabled us to enter into a relationship with God and gave us the possibility of rising with Him.

Anniversaries of the faithful departed: Ada Ashton, Daniel Byrne, Margaret Clarke, Anthony Iwanikiw, Luke Sweeney, Natalie Burgielska, Michael Maxwell, Vesna Dokleja, Francis Charters, Margaret Collins, John Maguire, Peter Cronin, Mary Dillon, Julia Roddis, James Dunbar, Dorothy Bissell, Annie Andrews, Winifred Fox, Hugh Williams, Patrick O'Driscoll, Hubert Vincent, Mary Connolly, Cornelius Sullivan, Ned Crowley, Margaret Dowling, Philip James, Paul Prescott, Norah Baker, Colin Dunphy, Alexander Hay, Phyllis Thacker, Mary Rogerson, Archbishop Bernard Ullathorne OSB, Archbishop Francis Grimshaw, Bishop Humphrey Bright, Mgr. Canon John Welch, Mgr. Henry Davis, Fr. John Donnelly, Fr. John McManus, Deacon Louis Livesey. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, Rest in Peace. Amen.

Readers for 5pm Saturday Mass at St Peters: Now that Saturday evening masses have returned to St Peters, we are keen as soon as possible to set up a readers' rota for the weeks ahead. The liturgy of the word is such an important part of the celebration of our mass and we want to encourage as many of you who would like to, to play a part in it. We especially want to encourage younger readers (and their parents or guardians!) to help us celebrate this part of the mass and to help us hear the word of our Lord. For those who have not read at mass before, training will be provided with the opportunity to practise reading in the Church before mass.

If you would like to volunteer to be on the readers' rota – please contact Paul & Yvonne Milton – in the first instance by email: paulmilton04@gmail.com or by phone on 0790 447 2590.

The sign up sheet is at the back of St. Peter's and Our Lady's Churches.

Children's liturgy: It's lovely to see families returning to Our Lady's Church now the 10am Sunday Mass is back. The next move is to reintroduce the Children's Liturgy where children take part in their own child friendly versions of the prayers and readings and a practical activity related to the Gospel message. To do this we need volunteers who would be willing to lead or support the sessions.

If you feel able to volunteer or if you would like to know more about what is involved please let Fr John or Jo know after mass (you'll find Jo in the choir).
