Dear Parishioners,

There are two annual publications which are eagerly awaited and essential for the smooth running of the Church. The Diocesan Directory is packed with information and is an essential aide memoire for churches, schools, hospitals, clergy and diocesan curia and many other facts as well. The Ordo is the quick reference book concerning everything to do with the liturgical calendar and is used extensively by clergy, parish administrators, faith leaders, musicians, and altar servers.

A few days ago, without the Ordo to hand, I searched through the 1565 pages of the altar missal as I looked for the prayers of the Mass for the Holy Trinity which is this Sunday. It was a journey of discovery as I reacquainted myself with the numerous prayers, texts, and occasions. I expected Trinity Sunday to follow Pentecost but no, Pentecost is the last Sunday of Eastertide. (It also explains why during our weekday masses this week we have returned to Ordinary time and the clergy are wearing green vestments again). This meant looking in various parts of the Missal to see where I could find the Mass for this weekend. This week is the 11th Week in Ordinary Time (Sunday Year C) but was nowhere near the Sunday prayers either. Being a movable date, which depends on when the season of Lent is begun, it is not to be found in the many pages which cover a large proportion of the book from Ash Wednesday to Pentecost, or in the annual dates of the memorials, optional memorials and feast days for special occasions and the saints. My final port of call was to check the Solemnities of the Lord during Ordinary Time. Ha! This was where it was hidden. Over the page was hiding, Corpus Christi which has been transferred to Sunday 19th June and after that, the last Sunday of the Year which is on November 20th. Now I feel much more confident about knowing where to find the texts I need on Sunday. It is also the reason why there is sometimes a pause during the mass as the priest attempts to remember... Continued Page 3.

Dear Parishioners Continued....which page or section of the book, he might find a particular prayer. There are 1565 pages in the altar missal, 210 pages in the Ordo and 224 pages in the Diocesan Directory. This week we are in Week 11, Sunday Year C, Psalter week 3, Weekday readings Year 2.

This weekend the children at St Joseph's will be making their First Holy Communion and the children from Our Lady and St Teresa's School will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation so there is plenty to celebrate across our churches. Next Saturday the children of St Anthony's School will be making their First Holy Communion and next Sunday, as I mentioned above, is the Solemnity of Corpus Christi (the most Holy Body and Blood of Christ).

The big news from last weekend is beginning to sink in and disseminate around the parish. In case you didn't see it: Fr John and Fr Benedict are leaving at the end of July. Fr Stephen Day will become the new PP of St Peter's and Our Lady's. There are no plans to replace Fr Benedict. The reality of it is beginning to sink in and many people have expressed their sadness at the change. Fr Benedict will soon enough be looking at the responsibility of becoming a parish priest and needs to get plenty of experience to lean on for that future task. I am beginning to feel sad and hoping I can hold it together for when the time comes to say "Goodbye". I recall when I left my last parish I cried and after about 15 minutes realised I was driving in the wrong direction. Quite a few people thought I would be returning after my Sabbatical, but this is not the case. It is difficult not knowing where I will be going but I am hoping to learn in the next month or two.

It might be useful to be thinking about a summer timetable for the weekend masses. Do we need quite so many masses during the school holidays and when the students are away? Many priests do this now. It is more difficult when 1 priest has 2 or more churches to serve .

Every Blessing,

Fr. John

**The Sparrows** - This week on Sparrow Watch: We are still having to feed our young ones even though they have now fled the nest. They kick up such a fuss if we don't let them come over for tea and WE! Have to feed them too. A parents job is never done. The Sparrows.

St. Peter's Church Boiler Repairs

As Father John explained in his Dear Parishioners on 8th May, both of the Boilers/Burners that heat the Church have been condemned. We are still awaiting an accurate quotation to repair these but the ballpark figure is £20,000 to fix both of them.

Since the start of May we have raised: £1,080-75 of which: 2nd Coll.—£944-35, Fundraised—£110-00 and £26-40 through Donations.

The next update will be at the end of June. If you would like to donate to this Appeal please either place your donation in an envelope marked—Church Heating or alternatively contact the office.
