WELCOME TO MASS: If you are a visitor, or a new arrival in the area, do say hello to Fr Stephen, Deacon Paul, or Fr Kevin. A welcome also to students of Warwick University joining us. There is tea and coffee and conversation available after both Masses on Sundays in the hall.

Sunday's Readings We are reminded by Christ's Beatitudes of our call to be saints. Blessedness or happiness comes in surprising but profound ways to those who seek sanctity – the path of Christ – in their loving of God and neighbour. We begin this month with celebrating the Church Triumphant – the saints in heaven. On Monday we pray for the Church Expectant, the faithful departed. May we, who are part of the third section of the Church, the Church Militant striving to become saints here on earth, that is the Pilgrim Church moving forward towards our hope, sense the prayers of the saints and pray for the souls of the departed. May the Lord sustain us on our journey towards Him and may our hearts respond to His call. God bless you, Fr Stephen

HOLY COMMUNION: If you are not a Roman Catholic, a member of a church in full communion with it, or an Orthodox unable to attend an Orthodox Liturgy, you are warmly invited to come forward for a blessing at the time of Holy Communion. Holy Communion cannot be given to all, as it is for us the sign of unity in the faith. Communion is NOT bread and wine, but the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of God the Son. Let us pray for unity among all Christians, as God wills. Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar!

FROM FATHER KEVIN: I would like to express my appreciation and heartfelt thanks to Father Stephen, Deacon Paul, and to all those who arranged the Reception after the 11.15 am Mass last Sunday, in celebration of my seventieth birthday. Although I am not yet fully recovered after my recent accident at Mass, it was a great joy to concelebrate Mass at St Peter's and to be surrounded by such kindness and generosity at the Reception. Furthermore, I would like to thank those who sent cards and gave me presents to mark my arrival at this milestone on the road of life. I am very grateful to you all, and may our Lord richly bless all parishioners for their prayer and recent expressions of concern for me. Fr Kevin

ST PETER'S BUILDINGS: information about our need to have an affordable and sustainable presbytery, hall and church will be shared on this sheet. From maintenance to mission!
Please pray and think, talk and listen as we try together to find a way to have a hall, presbytery and church that are affordable. Fr Stephen is committed to information sharing in order that we might exercise co-responsibility fully, making informed decisions based on facts and possibility and NOT on guesswork, rumour or wishful thinking. Please therefore keep yourself informed by reading what appears here from time to time. Previous news sheets are available on the Catholic Leamington website.
Our architect has advised us that it would be feasible to return the old house at the front of the hall back into a house. This would of course have to be funded: the proceeds of selling the current presbytery might more than cover the costs. It would mean reducing the size of the current hall complex. This is one possible option to be considered. The flat about the hall contains living space only and so is not suitable to be a presbytery; office space and a meeting room would have to be created somewhere in the current hall complex.
Currently, we are processing facts and figures as a beginning to aid discussion, then form feasible ideas and finally be in a position to make a decision.
From maintenance to mission! Please pray and reflect, talk and listen.

ARRANGING A WEDDING

Congratulations on your engagement! To arrange a wedding, you must begin with a meeting of you both with Fr Stephen so that the canonical (Church) and civil processes can be followed. At least six months' notice is ideal. Please make yourself known to Fr Stephen.

ARRANGING A BAPTISM

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! Parents must begin by seeing Fr Stephen in person at a Sunday Mass. He can then check a few facts and give out a baptism application form. We can't deal with initial arrangements by phone, email or through friends or other family members, but face to face—you are asking for your child to join the community of the Church, so we welcome you to come and meet its members here.
