CATHOLIC LEAMINGTON : Third Sunday of Easter A, 26 April 2020

Dear Parishioners

"Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us". These words of the disciples on the road to Emmaus are words that I have pondered many times in my life. I often ask myself: does the word of God still make my heart burn within me when I listen to it? The answer is yes, I still feel truly inspired when I read certain passages from scripture. During this time of lock-down I notice (via social media!) that we are being encouraged to read a bit more. The temptation is to get out our favourite novel or to flick through Kindle to discover the latest bestseller. However, I think it was interesting to note that our Holy Father Pope Francis has encouraged us to think about reading the Acts of the Apostles. The Acts of the Apostles which we listen to each day during Eastertide is the great account of the mission of the early Church. It is not too dissimilar to the situation the Church finds itself in right now. At this time, we are called to be like those early disciples, steadfast in faith and truthful to Christ and the resurrection. In the coming weeks, maybe we can take time to read some scripture, particularly the Acts of the Apostles and allow our hearts to burn within us like the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Every blessing, Fr Andy.

Cllr Bernard Kirton RIP: Cllr Kirton's family has been in touch and there will be an online Memorial Mass for the him on Tuesday 28 April at 7.00 pm. Please go to MCN Media, Warwickshire Churches, St Joseph's Whitnash or the Live-streaming link on www.stjosephs47.org.uk to attend the Mass. Cllr Kirton amongst many other roles in our community was a Governor of St Joseph's School for 35 years.

Thank you if you have been able to sign up to a Standing Order and to those who have already made use of the online card donation option on the website. I am extremely grateful for your continued support.

St Peter's School is collecting donations of non-perishable food and other household items for families who are struggling. Some of the families whose children attend the school are requesting help.

Tales of the Unexpected: The boss says I frequently provide him with the inspiration he needs for his sermons. I say it is my gift to him. What he does not know is that he often provides me with the inspiration I need for my Tales of the Unexpected. I say it is my gift to him. I also say I am a very lucky dog to have such a kind master but I don't like to say it too often in case he gets complacent. I say it's like a marriage: give and take. He gives and I take! Best woofs, Bertie ;-) xx

Please pray for the Repose of the Soul of Bishop Leo McCartie, who has died at the age of 94. Patrick Leo McCartie, titular bishop of Elmhama and auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Birmingham, then tenth bishop of Northampton, died in St Joseph's home, Harborne, Birmingham, on St George's Day, Thursday 23 April. May he rest in peace.

Spiritual Communion is the heartfelt desire to receive Our Lord even when we are not in the Eucharistic presence of Our Lord. This can be prayed several times daily.

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Congratulations to our Hand in Hand Group which made it onto the Vatican website! Members of the group told the Easter Story in words, by signing and with mime. Susie read the Gospel of the day from her living room in Leamington Spa. Laura and Marie read a response. Debbie was also recorded reading her own version of the Easter story. This initiative came about through technology made possible by Julia from St Mary Immaculate in Warwick after the Hosanna Cantata scheduled for the end of March had to be cancelled. Congratulations to all!
